Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Lewis Central had a lot of guys that could hit the ball very well. That combined with only playing to 8 games and a rain delay made play a little nerve racking to watch. It was good to have wrapped up the match from our 5 singles victories, because the doubles matches could have taken a nasty turn for us.

Highlights: Jacob Heiden's serve and volley game was a thing of beauty that Lewis Central's #1 had no answer for.

Ryan Petersen in his debut in the # 2 position had to work hard for his win. They stayed on serve for the first 5 games, but Ryan finally broke his hard serving opponent and rode that momentum throughout the match to an 8-4 win.

Nick Ingram is a fearsome opponent to play particularly in the # 3 spot. His opponent didn't want any part of that match.

Andrew Hrabik had to play some patient tennis to outlast an athletic pusher in Jay Hildreth, LC's #4.

Philip Keairnes and Ryan Petersen were never threatened in their doubles match.

Joel Aurand and Andrew Hrabik keep looking better as doubles partners each match. They increased their doubles record to an unblemished 9-0 season record.
