Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Sioux City East had many players, although inexperienced at the varsity level, were very good athletes. They kept the ball in play and forced us to patiently construct points that would finish the point in our favor. It took a lot of patience and we handled the mental aspect of tennis well today.

Highlights: Nick Ingram and Ryan Petersen were dominant in their singles matches, both winning 10-1.

Andrew Hrabik played a quality leftie and the match was quite close for the first 20 minutes before Andrew pulled away for a 10-3 win.

Joel Aurand improved his net play today in his 10-2 win.

I was really impressed with the mental aspect of Philip Keairnes's game today. It took great patience and poise to beat his athletic opponent. Phil handled himself well in his 10-7 win.

Ryan Petersen and Phil Keairnes fell way behind in their doubles match 3-8. We've faced opponents that pack it in when they've fallen that far behind, but Ryan and Phil gutted it out to bring the match to 8-9. It was an amazing comeback, but unfortunately they fell just shy 8-10. I was really proud of the heart they showed today.

Riley Sondag switched to a serve and volley style of play in the middle of his #1 JV match. He groundstrokes are already quite good. Combined with the serve and volley ability that he showed today, he is a player to watch out for in the future.
