Comments: Shenandoah had some good players on their team and made it a match for us today. We need some adversity like today's start to see how we react when teams put us on our heels. We responded well.

This last two weeks of the season is a busy time for us. This is our fourth match in a row in as many school days and the effects of this grind are beginning to pop up.

Thursday's match against Kuemper is a big one. We'll try to finish off an undefeated regular season against a very talented and well coached team. Results of the match will have huge implications on critical seeding in the conference and district tournaments next week.

Highlights: Ryan Petersen had to gut out a back and forth match against a solid Jeff Armstrong who was determined to let Ryan make the first mistake. Ryan took that challenge and won 10-7 in that mental battle.

Nick Ingram's singles start was close before he reeled off 5 straight games.

Andrew Hrabik forced his player to play Andrew's style of tennis which meant bad news for his opponent.

Philip Keairnes took a commanding 9 game lead before winning 10-2.

Jacob Heiden played well in his 4-10 loss to Shenandoah's #1, a foreign exchange player from Germany, who has emerged as the dominant singles player in our conference.

Philip Keairnes and Ryan Petersen's doubles game is peaking at just the right time. They've gotten so much better as the season has progressed.

Joel Aurand and Andrew Hrabik dominated in their doubles match 10-4 to raise their record to 10-0.
