Comments:

The Freshmen Monarchs wrapped up their week in a DH matchup at home against the Harlan Cyclones. In game one, the Monarchs were able to plate 2 runs using small ball to get runners over and then getting them in. The Cyclones used a big 3rd inning to keep the lead to go on to take game one by a score of 14-2. Grayson Wilcox got the start in game 2 where he would go all 4 innings striking out 4. The Monarchs offense was unable to get much going credit to the Cyclone pitcher. Harlan would take game 2 by a score of 8-0. The Freshman Monarchs will look to finish their season strong going into the last week starting in Carroll next Monday at Carroll North Little League Fields.
