Varsity Girls Highlights - Team Competition

The varsity girls placed third in the Lady Monarch Baker tournament. Their first five games on lanes 5 and 6 were 174, 181, 190, 198, and 161. The girls did really well and were able to keep up with Lewis Central and Clarinda. They were 20 pins behind Clarinda and 5 pins behind Lewis Central. After the lane change, the second set did not go as well as the first. The girls bowled games of 146, 165, 140, 147, and 142. The pins weren't falling and the girls struggling to pick up their spares. The girls were now 188 pins behind Clarinda and 81 pins behind Lewis Central. The last set of bakers were bowled on lanes 1 and 2. The girls really tried to gain back some pins throwing games of 137, 195, 160, 148, and 170. Throughout the tournament, Ashton Randeris held the anchor position. Hailey Galvin rotated in as anchor for a few of the games. The girls also took advantage of the substitute rule all throughout the meet, having Abby Ratliff come in and pick up spares as every pin counted. In the end, Clarinda won the tournament bowling a 2641, Lewis Central placed second with a 2612, and Denison-Schleswig placed third with a 2454.
