The Monarch boys had a slow start to the afternoon with their first baker set. They bowled games of 202, 179, 200, 182, and 192. They were in 7th place going in to the second set of bakers. They continued to bowl under what they would normally shoot. It seems like they couldn't catch a break or string their strikes together. They came through on the fourth game and were finally able to put something together. They bowled games of 184, 176, 185, 230, and 181. Going into the last set of bakers they were in 7th place behind Burlington by 58 pins. The last set was by far their best set. They bowled games of 198, 214, 177, 200, and 225. They finished as the 6th seed with a score of 2925.
