Coach Comments

Home opener in our newly renovated gym we got off to a good start getting out to a 17-1 lead in the first quarter. But I thought we ran out of gas a bit in the 2nd quarter and broke down a little bit on both ends of the floor and Storm Lake put a run us to get the lead. A lead they never would relinquish although we got it down to one possession a few times in the 4th quarter. The first couple of weeks have been filled with mix and match lineups and trying to define roles based upon players available. Tonight we had a different lineup than night one due to getting some guys back, but foul trouble and fatigue got us into some unusual rotations. We did a lot of good things. But hopefully we can start to settle in a little bit on who we are as a team and how we want to execute late in certain situations. Something I am confident we will get corrected as time goes on.
