Comments- Tonight was another tough conference road game, that we will see plenty in our conference, against probably the conference preseason favorite in Harlan. I thought our guys battled some foul trouble early on to keep us in the game. But the last few possessions in the third quarter and the start of the 4th we were unable to get some good looks on the offensive end, and didn't guard Harlan's stuff real well for about 6 game minutes and that was the difference in the game. Give Harlan credit, they got us out of rhythm early in the offensive end and broke us down more than we had in the first 4 games on the defensive end. Our guys and our staff will use this game to point out the areas we need to get better at, and go back to executed on both side of the court better going forward, especially late in close games.
