

Responding to a tough loss on Tuesday the Monarchs bounced back with a win against Creston Friday night, 5-1. Heading into the Hawkeye 10 opener, our team embraced change and our seniors stepped up in practice throughout the week. To start, Christopher Magna had three saves in the first half and Sebastian Contreras collected three saves in the second half as well. Sebastian was tested with two penalty kicks with one solid stop and one slipping through. On the offensive of side of things, the Monarchs had a total of 11 shots on goal and 5 of those finding the back of the net. Manny Alcaraz contributed with two goals with an assist from Ramon Perez and one penalty kick. Richard Gonzales had a similar night with one goal assisted by Griseldo Madera and one penalty kick and Jackson Saravia found the back of the net with one unassisted goal. Next week the Monarchs will have Lewis Central at home Monday and on the road Tuesday at Sioux City West.

Stats: 5 goals (two penalty kicks), 11 shots, two assists, 6 saves (1 goal against), and two corner kicks.
