Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Because of spring break, Heelan was missing most of their regular varsity players. It made for a fairly easy match.

Highlights: Colin Reis did face their regular #1 varsity player who had a strong serve. Colin's penetrating groundstrokes and strong serves of his own were too much for him however.

Carson Seuntjens has a seemingly effortless style in setting up points for the win. He has a lot of variety in his game.

First year player Blaine Brodsky continued to pick up valuable experience in his 8-2 win, his 8-0 doubles win, and his 8-2 win in exhibition doubles. We'll need that experience at the end of the season.

Brandon Lauderville picked up his first high school win today in an exhibition doubles match. He nicely demonstrated many of the doubles skills that we have been working on in practice.
