Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: This was our first match where our full complement of varsity players were available to play today. They looked pretty good despite facing challenging wind gusts today. I really liked the depth of our groundstrokes. Sometimes in the wind, you can hit tentatively and lose good depth, but we really pushed the baseline to force our opponents to play defensively.

Highlights: Carson Seuntjens showed an ability to really mix up his game today, either with spin or power. He is getting better each match.

Wyatt Johnson was having trouble getting his serve in today, but he didn't let that affect the rest of his game and managed an 8-2 win.

Isaac Leinen played some pretty tight games, but managed to win each one in his 8-0 varsity singles debut.

Connor MacGregor got off to another slow start, down 2-3, but reeled off the next 4 games in his singles win.
