Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Preseason Sioux City East was picked as the favorites of their conference. We found out today why. Their top 4 players had very effective serves. Combine that with the wind today and we struggled to even return their serves. We were particularly exposed in doubles play. We will have to work on putting balls away and finishing points.

Highlights: Carson Seuntjens in his debut at #1 (Colin Reis was ill) played well. His consistency gave him the easy 8-1 win.

Harrison Dahm held off a late surge to win 8-6. Every singles win was big for us today.

Blaine Brodsky played some marathon games and finally pulled away from his opponent for a 8-5 win. He really served better today.

Braden Curnyn played fantastic in doubles. It is the perfect venue for his aggressive play.

Gavin Hipnar played big at the #6 varsity spot today. His 8-1 win clinched the dual.

The JV won a squeaker today 6-5. Notable was Alan Rivera's tiebreaker win in his second singles match. He is making a lot of improvement.
