Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Shenandoah is an extremely good team. They should do well in the postseason. Their serves were a particular strength. The good news for the day was that our JV held their own in a 4-4 tie, bringing their record to 2-0-1 for the season. We played our doubles matches before singles today in preparation for that rule change in postseason team play. It is quite an adjustment.

Highlights: Javin Baker and Owen Galvin continue to improve in doubles with each other. Javin's groundstrokes and returns are getting better each week.
