Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: It is so nice playing with the varsity back at full strength especially against a tougher team like Atlantic that pushed us in many matches. This dual can be used as a yardstick for how we can compete with the tougher teams in the conference and we responded well.

Highlights: Carson Seuntjens had a great day today going 10-1 in singles then 10-0 in doubles. His aggressiveness in doubles is fun to watch especially paired with Adolfo Vargas' patient defensive style.

Having Adolfo Vargas back after a minor injury really makes a deeper, stronger team. Despite not playing for a week, Adolfo looked great in his 10-1 singles victory.

Harrison Dahm wowed the spectators today with his groundstrokes. It is fun to watch a player when he is hitting the ball so well.

Isaac Leinen's return of service was the difference maker in his singles matches. For the most part, he timed them well with pace and depth.

Wyat Johnson volleyed really well in doubles. It is something that he has been specifically working on in practice and his skills are progressing rapidly.

Colin Reis and Harrison Dahm played a fantastic doubles team and despite not playing their best won 10-6. They have the makings of a special doubles team.
