Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: It wasn't pleasant to lose, but adding Hunter Pieper to the line-up makes us a much deeper, stronger team. Unfortunately Owen Galvin had to default his singles match with an elbow injury which made doubles significantly tougher to play without him. It was good to be in a competitive match again. Hopefully the next one will turn our way. It was also good to see our JV win convincingly. They are having a good year.

Highlights:

Adonay Arellano's serve and groundstrokes showed up in his 10-7 singles win. He has drastically improved his tennis skills from last year.

Hunter Pieper won convincingly 10-6 in singles in his season debut. His forehand and serve were especially going well in his singles match.

Cesar Cardano Jr showed some some flashes of great tennis in his 7-10 doubles loss with Hunter in the #2 position. He has been making strides in the last couple of weeks with his groundstrokes.

Tyson Stoppel also looked good in his 6-3 doubles win with Javin Baker.

Varsity Singles Winners: Adonay Arellano, Hunter Pieper

JV Singles Winners: Ethan Totten, Roman Bygness, Tyson Stoppel, Jayden Ghislandi, Jorge Romualdo

JV Doubles Winners: Baker/Stoppel, Bygness/Totten, Ghislandi/Romualdo
