Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: This was a good win today. Coming off prom weekend combined with the windy cold weather is always unnerving. St. Albert always has talent at the top and we are happy to get a win in the books.

Highlights: Because of the cold, Harrison Dahm wore a black pullover today. I glanced over seeing a black shirted player hitting with perfect form and I thought "Man, I wish I had that player." It turns out the player was Harrison. When he is in form, he looks unbeatable and he looked really good today. He closed out his doubles match with Colin Reis with some beautiful shots.

Colin Reis had to play one of the best singles players in the conference in Carter White. Many unforced errors kept him behind through most of the match, but he fought through it and pulled out a 10-8 win.

Carson Seuntjens' 10-1 is misleading. His opponent incredibly kept putting balls back into a difficult wind. He made Carson work for it.

Wyatt Johnson is a fantastic #5 player. He really adds incredible depth to the team.
