Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: It was nice to get our last match's loss out of the taste of our mouths. The guys hit well after a bit of a break. The only disappointment was Colin Reis' loss at singles. It was the first time that he has lost a singles match in his career.

Highlights: Harrison Dahm and Colin Reis upped their doubles record this season to an undefeated 5-0. They did it by defeating another undefeated doubles team in Jeff Miller and Carter White from St. Albert. Today was a good win for them. Harrison hit some good overheads from deep in the court.

In singles, Harrison Dahm displayed great touch at the net. His complete game is really starting to come around.

Adolfo Vargas continued to dominate in singles winning 8-1. Splitting duties on the track team, he is 4-0 in singles and 4-0 in doubles on the season.

Carson Seuntjens played intelligently today. There were times when he could have powered the ball at the net, but instead opted for smart angles that his opponents couldn't reach. He is evolving.

Isaac Leinen's serve looked very good today. It is a little wild, but when it is in, it is often untouchable. He also stepped up and drilled some returns today on his opponents' soft second serve in his doubles match with Wyatt Johnson.

Varsity Singles Winners: Harrison Dahm, Adolfo Vargas, Carson Seuntjens, Isaac Leinen, Wyatt Johnson

Varsity Doubles Winners: Dahm/Reis, Seuntjens/Vargas, Braeden Curnyn/Connor MacGregor

Exhibition Doubles Winners: Wyatt Johnson/Isaac Leinen
