Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Harlan lost quite a bit of their talent from last year and are suffering from growing pains, but their number 1 player had some impressive groundstrokes. He has made much improvement from his #5 spot last year. Our doubles play has continued to look good as a team.

Highlights: Carson Seuntjens bageled another singles opponent in the #2 singles position. He hit the ball with good angles today.

Harrison Dahm and Colin Reis played another fantastic doubles match today. I reminded myself today to step back and appreciate their ability. They've spoiled us for the last few years. As seniors, their high school days are coming to a wane.

Wyatt and Carson really set up their points nicely in doubles. They complement each other well.
