Comments and Highlights on next page

Comments: Kuemper is always a strong team even when they are young like this year. They always have good groundstrokes and are very athletic. We were behind in 4 of the 6 singles matches early on. Fortunately we were able to battle back to win 5 of the singles matches to secure the dual win. It was fortunate, because our doubles play was subpar today. We were significantly behind in both the #2 and #3 matches before securing victories in both. When we face good teams like Kuemper, we need to up our play and hopefully we can get this figured out soon. Today was the last JV match of the season and to come out with a tie was a good result. The wins primarily came from our young new players, which is a positive sign for our future. After the match, they went back on the court to hit for fun. That is the chemistry that laid the foundation for good Denison teams in the past. I was really happy with the JV today. They finish with 1 win, 1 loss, and 1 tie for the season.

Highlights: Kuemper's #1, Sam Janssen, has been a star since he was a freshman and his groundstrokes were phenomenal. Colin has developed enough not to play to his opponent's strengths. Instead of getting into a groundstrokes war with him, Colin turned the match into a battle at the net and came out with a solid 10-5 win. Colin is such a smart player.

For the first time this season, Carson fell way down in a match, 2-5, to Kuemper's #2. He turned it around though and won the next 8 straight games.

Harrison Dahm rolled to another 10-0 win. It is such luxury to have a player of his ability playing in the #3 spot.

Gavin Hipnar secured the 5th win for the team with his 10-4 singles win.
