Comments from Assistant Coach Nate Pardun:

After a strong meet on Saturday in Jefferson we faced some tough competition tonight in Storm Lake. It was great for the kids to see some more competitive runners to help themselves understand where they fall with faster teams. Regardless of the change in competition we still saw several faster times for this season from our runners. Our middle school teams finished the evening with 4 medalists. Ali Ullrich lead the way for the middle school girls with a 7th place finish, and Charlotte Schrum was close behind with a 10th place finish. The middle school boys also had two in the top 10. Kevin Sanchez wrapped up his race in 3rd place, and Victor Menendez finished in 6th. We had several others just outside of the top 10 finishers which was great to see. Our high school teams had 3 medalists on the evening. Lola Mendlik finished her race in 7th place. On the boys' side, Leo Flores fought in a close finish for 9th, while Ricky Ledesma was close behind in 18th. We are looking forward to another great meet in Mapleton at the MVAOCOU Invitational next Thursday.
