Hailey Meseck started off the day playing St. Alberts Landry Miller. Hailey lost (0-6, 2-6) against a very talented player. Hailey bounced back in her next match against Ashley Goy of Glenwood winning (6-4, 3-6, 10-6). Hailey battled today against some great competition and I am excited to see her keep improving. She ended up placing 3rd place.

Hannah Weber had a fantastic day. She won her first match against Shenandoahs Erin Baldwin (6-3, 1-6, 10-8). Her consistent hits frustrated her oponent. Hannah then played a talented St. Alberts player Allision Narm in the championship. Hannah lost 1-6, 0-6, but she did a lot of good things in this match. Overall, Hannah placed 2nd which I am super proud of.

Kiana Schulz and Paola Martinez still have not lost a match. Today, they chose to play doubles with eachother. They first played Riley Morgenstern and Madeline Becker from Glenwood. This was a very close match. Kiana and Paola won 6-2, 3-6, and 10-7. In the championship game, they played Alexis Narmi and Anna Schewe from St. Alberts. Kiana and Paola won the first set in a tie breaker 10-8. They then won the second set 6-3. They ended up getting 1st place. Kiana and Paola make a great doubles team and I am excited to keep watching them grow.

Abby Gehlsen and Evelyn Lopez had a wonderful day. They first played Lily Barnes and Abigail French from St Alberts. Abby and Evelyn won 6-2, 6-4. In the championship game, they played Glenwoods Mya Silvius and Riley Wiese. This was a super close game, but in the end Evelyn and Abby won 4-6, 6-4, and the tiebreaker was 10-6. Abby and Evelyn overcame some adversity in this match which I was awesome to watch. They played some great tennis today.
