Highlights:

Paola Martinez competed today at #1 singles. She beat some fantastic opponents throughout the day.

Kiana Schulz played some great tennis today. She played a very tough opponent in the championship, but fell short in the third set which was a super tie-breaker. It was a battle the whole time. I am proud of the way she fought today.

Hailey Meseck and Hannah Weber had two extremely close matches today. Either match could have gone any way. Unfortunately, they didn't go our way today. I am proud of the way they competed on the courts.

Abby Gehlsen and Evelyn Lopez gave it their all today. They beat an Atlantic team they lost to earlier this season to start the day. They are a fun doubles team to watch because of how well they work together.
