Highlights:

Kiana Schulz competed today at #1 singles. She competed with some really great players today. She battled back in the consolation bracket which is not easy to do. I am proud of how she played. She showed she can play with the best.

Emma Ahrenholtz and Hailey Meseck played #1 doubles today. They fought hard all day long and ended up placing 8th. They had to battle back in the consolation bracket. They were aggressive at the net which was fun to watch.

Abby, Zoey, and Lynnae had some tough draws right away. They got off to a slow start and had to try and battle from behind the whole match. They should be proud of how they competed. They will gain from this experience for next year.
