Comments from the Monarch coaching staff:

We had a good night of wrestling at Kuemper. The varsity field was pretty loaded with state caliber wrestlers - especially at some of those middle weights. Taylor Totten and Andrea Alcaraz reached the finals before settling for 2nd place finishes. Taylor had a nice win in the semis over a girl she had yet to beat over the past couple years. Andrea is just a freshman and reached the finals. She has been very coachable this season and implements the changes we try to put in place.

Taya Adams racked up three wins on the night while finishing in 6th place and Adrianna Lupian did a nice job winning a couple matches on the back side of the pracket to finish 5th.

As with most times in wrestling, the outcome of the match doesn't tell the whole story. We like that girls are starting to wrestle to a decision when they lose, at times, and we need to get back to work to turn those close losses into wins during the last month of the season. Tonight was our last action before Christmas break and we will be back in action the first weekend in January at Lo-Ma.
