Comments:

The JV Monarchs faced off with the Harlan Cyclones on Thursday night where they came out with a victory by the score of 11-2. Tonight was pitching by committee as Cale Paulsen got the start as he threw a scoreless first striking out two. The Monarchs struck first as Trae Hartwig would come around to score in the first inning. Zach Koch came into pitch the 2nd inning allowing 1 run and striking out 1. The Monarchs responded with a big 5 run frame in the bottom of the 2nd inning capitalizing on walks and singles by Charlie Beeck and Braxtyn Wilcox. Payton Emery would come in to pitch the remaining 3 innings pounding the strikezone and letting his defense work behind him while also striking out 3 Cyclone batters. The Monarchs added runs in the 4th and 5th innings to solidify the win. We will wrap up the week on Friday in Mapleton as the JV Monarchs are now 2-1 on the season.
